

Competition requires competitors. If the FCC lifts the dominant classification from the Local Exchange Carriers (Bells), competition in the American Telecom marketplace will stagnate. ISPs and CLECs will die, putting more Americans out of work. Consumers will be deprived of choice. Chairman Powell: Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.